Conflict of Interest Management Plan

Commissioner: Sandra Alofivae

The following plan has been agreed to manage your declared conflict of interest. This takes into account the conflict's likely effect on your role and responsibilities as well as the risks to the processes of the Royal Commission.

How the conflict of interest will be managed

Conflict	Management plan: restrict involvement in the process
Presbyterian Church	Commissioner Alofivae will not be involved in hearings into any person or entity associated with the Presbyterian Church. In such a case, Commissioner Alofivae will not sit as part of a quorum of Commissioners for the hearing. The survivor account team will be advised of this interest and will not arrange private sessions between Commissioner Alofivae and any person associated with the Presbyterian Church. Should it become apparent to Commissioner Alofivae in the course of a private session that the person she is meeting with is associated with the Presbyterian Church, Commissioner Alofivae will immediately disclose this interest and offer the person the option to end the session and have arrangements made to meet with another commissioner. Commissioner Alofivae will not participate in deliberations or report-writing that relate to any person or entity associated with the Presbyterian Church. This management plan will be proactively released on the Royal Commission's website.
